Modified Unit: A unit that has been modified to be accessible for an individual with physical disabilities to assist in living independently with or without support.

Occupancy Requirements (number of bedrooms required)

The number of bedrooms your household is eligible for is determined by local occupancy standards for rent-geared-to-income assistance. Generally, couples are expected to share a bedroom, and an additional bedroom is allowed for each additional member of the household. The smallest number of bedrooms allowed is one bedroom per two household members and couples can apply for a bachelor unit.

What size unit would you like to move into? Check all that apply:

☐ Bachelor ☐ One (1) bedroom ☐ Two (2) Bedroom ☐ Three (3) Bedroom

☐ Four (4) Bedroom ☐ Five (5) Bedroom

All household members over the age of 16 are required to sign below to confirm they have read the following:

1. Many providers are changing over Smoking units to Non-Smoking units as units become available. (See point 3)
2. When offered a unit by a Housing Provider, there will be a requirement to obtain Tenant Insurance.
3. If you refuse 1 offer from the addresses you have selected, your name will be removed from the centralized wait list.

Please, only select those addresses you are willing to move to.

Rent Supplements

The City of Kingston has agreements with private landlords, where specified units in their buildings are reserved for applicants from the Rent-Geared-to-Income waiting list. Under the agreement, the tenant pays the Rent- Geared-to-Income portion of the rent to the landlord and the balance of the rent is subsidized by the City. Applicants selecting rent supplements may be offered various buildings depending on availability and vacancies within that location.
